In exchange for the services provided by Light Engraved, Inc. and other valuable consideration, "Customer" and "Seller" enter into this Release, Waiver, Discharge and Covenant Not to Sue, (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement"). "Customer" expressly releases "Seller" from any and all liability and further states and covenants that:

"Customer" understands that said engraving services are precise and that the slightest of measurements may adversely affect the quality or design of the engraving, the personal property's value and "Customer's" satisfaction.

"Customer" assumes all risk of damage to my personal property while in the possession of "Seller" whether through negligence, neglect or natural disaster and waive any and all claims, suits, causes of action or demand for any of the damages I may incur.

"Customer" expressly state that no guarantees, promises or representation have been made by "Seller" to me as to the quality of the future finished product or guarantee of "Customer's" aesthetic liking, preference or satisfaction of the future finished product.

With full knowledge of the risks to damage stated herein, I "Customer" release, waive, discharge and covenant not to sue "Seller" for any damages I may sustain, including, but not limited to: monetary loss caused to the value of "Customer's" personal property, depreciation, total loss, damage, and emotional distress.

This "Agreement" shall constitute the entire agreement between "Seller" and "Customer" and any prior understanding or representation of any kind preceding the date of this "Agreement" shall not be binding upon either party except to the extent incorporated in this "Agreement".
